Korea & Her Neighbours () by Isabella Lucy Bird With a Preface by Sir Walter C. Hillier, K.C.M.G. Late British Consul-General for Korea. Isabella Bird was an Englishwoman who had the wealth and the time to travel the world. Among the places she visited was Korea during the late Joseon dynasty, and here in this book, Korea and Her Neighbours, she records her travels over several visits to the country. In Korea and Her Neighbors, written in two volumes between 1894 and 1896, Isabella Bird documents one of the most critical and interesting periods of Korean history.
